

Little Urbanites, a Modern Family Living Children's Boutique, is adding a Motherly Touch to the 2009 Portland Street of Dreams

The Portland Pearl District is hosting the NW Natural 'Street of Dreams' event throughout the entire month of August. This event showcases upscale urban living, while focusing on environmentally friendly decorating and sustainable practices. Little Urbanites, located in the Pearl District, has been asked to decorate two units as their store promotes environmental living.

Portland, Ore -July 05, 2009 - Portland is holding it's first NW Natural 'Street of Dreams' event in the heart of the Pearl District and has invited Little Urbanites to be in charge of decorating a room in the Waterfront Pearl's penthouse apartment. Because the focus of this unit will be eco-friendly living, Little Urbanites environmental products will fit flawlessly with the design.

The NW Natural 'Street of Dreams' is celebrating its 34th anniversary by moving to the heart of Portland. This event will take place August 1-30th in the Pearl District and will be showcasing four of Portland's premiere condominium developments. These homes will give viewers a glance at the latest home innovations and interior designs.

Little Urbanites, located at 916 NW 10th Avenue in the Pearl, has created a strong relationship with the community of Portland and its surrounding areas. Green living is what Little Urbanites is committed to, while their environmental products provide the perfect alternative to contrary options. As the going green trend is beginning to overwhelm shoppers, Little Urbanites not only provides the products, but offers helpful advice on this new movement.

"Even a quick glance around the store will tell you this is a place dedicated to products that look good while doing good." -- Live PDX

Little Urbanites will be decorating a room in the Waterfront Pearl penthouse, as well as permanent model home in the 937 Condos. After the designers at Little Urbanites work their magic, these upscale homes will have the look and touch of a mother, while creating a modern and fashionable appeal to its viewers.

"In addition to premiere domestic and international brands and its own apparel brand, Little Urbanites offers complete fashion and interior design services, enabling customers to create unique styles for children in their lives" – KPTV

About Little Urbanites:

Little Urbanites is a Mother and Daughter owned children's store focused on providing their customers with excellent service and green living products for that new addition to the family. Little Urbanites offers products that are unique to the Portland area and make green living an easy alternative way of life. They can also be found online at <http://www.littleurbanites.com>.